

Patient's permission form

JICS is a journal which is distributed to the members of the Intensive Care Society who are doctors, nurses and other professionals working in care of the critically ill. This is to state that I give my full permission for the publication of photographs of myself/my relative (delete as necessary) and textual material in all issues of the above named journal printed and online. I understand that all efforts will be made to maintain my anonymity.

I declare, in consequence of granting this permission, that I have no claim on grounds of breach of confidence or any other legal system against JICS and Stansted News Ltd in respect of publication of the photograph(s) and textual material.

I hereby agree to release and discharge any editors or other contributors and Stansted News Ltd and their agents, successors and assigns from any and all claims, demands or causes of action that I may now have or may hereafter have for libel, defamation, invasion of privacy or copyright or violation of any other rights arising out of or relating to any use of my/my relative's (delete as necessary) image or case history.
